

INTELLECTUAL PRECOCITY

« Intellectual Precocity is the evolutionary, cognitive, emotional and motivational phenomenon multi dimensionally of the human intelligence by which along the development stage and activation of the intellectual basic resources (0 and 14 years) the differences of configuration can be attributed to at least two reasons: Differences in the pace of development, if the activation of the intellectual resources is carried out in a briefer lapse of time than the average pace (considered normal) and differences in ceiling if once finished the cognitive development it presents more and better aptitudes than the average⁵ .

Pupils with Intellectual Precocity need the same educational treatment as the gifted pupils¹²».